ABOUT

Rabiata is German but plays around the world -

Calling one of the most infamous cities in electronic music her hometown, Berlin resident Rabiata considers DJing not simply a job but a WAY OF LIFE. Ultimately, it should not catch as a surprise that she - right upon graduating - decided to cross the Atlantic, staying in cities such as New York, Chicago, and San Francisco where she obtained precious musical knowledge, helping her to built her very own style.

The fact that she is both, highly sensitive and capable to effortlessly blend numerous genres (from Afrobeats and Classics through House, all the way to HipHop and RnB) turned her quickly into a highly sought after artist playing in&on numerous clubs&events worldwide.

Rabiata always puts the crowd, the party and the fun first. Being 100% ,selfmade', she finally looks at herself as a role model for other females in the industry telling them to always follow their dreams and to never give up - a message she also keeps on spreading on her social media channels because after all: MUSIC IS THE ANSWER.
